. Richmond, Madison County, Kentucky Monday Afternoon, May 24, 1920

Price Five Cents

ST. MIHIEL DRIVE DESCRIBED BY SMITH

Overseas Veteran Delivers Eloquent Address To Large And Appreciative Audience

Excerpts from Col. Smith's ad

find a hero."

Germans,"

"It, what you can for the s.lderand do it now."

army of 3,000,000?"

"Judge the soldier by the average, not by a selected few."

much less than he started, except in and steady physicial work will reduce the way of experience." "Don't wait forty years and place but we made them call time."

flowers on their graves-help them while alive."

there, first, last and al the time." "Just get this, please-September 13, with several hundred killed and bonus to the soldier, but I am willing the air filled with gas from shells I want that done. It is not too much that had humanity strewn over the I will gladly pay my share, not as ground, the battalion men going for- charity, but as a matter of justice. I ward-those who were left singing, death knell of its own'-some dead, hear the tat tat of the machine others dying, nothing to eat, but going forward with that determination who heard the tat tat tat of the and bravery that placed American civiting machines", (applause). fighters at the head of the rank of the world. Can you beat that fighting spirit?"

"Remember, there are many soldiers ever see America again-make them had been brought from over 1200 to and have been the wonder and ac feel at home; give them a start."

scenes on the battlefields of France, a verbal portrayal of life and death characterizing the American fighter illustrating his indomitable bravery and will power, eloquently delivered was gan Smith of the 358th Infa division, A. E. F., address and appreciative audience. Marines and civilians, latter of whom were a fe of the Civil war, and a lil ling of ladies that made dience introduced to t leader by Commander Ha of Richmond, of Jesse M. No. 12, American Legio interest the meeting was I Commander Rice fire Eugene K. Movnahan, campaign committee, wh structively upon the su organization,, its aims vent manner, explained aim to get alll ex-serv its ranks, etc. Mr. Moy that while the enrollme encouraging thus far, it sire to make the local pe strongest in pointed of r this part of the state.

Col. Smith, upon be immediately presented the audience them as much as possible within a Henry T. Allen, C. O., of the 90th being pursued almost exclusively then His was a long life of great usefulvery short time, and he curtailed his address somewhat, owing to circumstances governing his visit here.

Col. Smith protected the soldier, from his superior officer to the buck private. He said: "I was a Major when the war broke out. I had been in the army service for almost forty years. I resigned my position and went 1,500 miles from my home in Chicago to enlist, and I joined the ranks as a buck private, and this per-, haps is one reason I have such a warm spot in my heart for them. I know what they are made of. I want to see them protected, and aidednow. Don't wait forty years and then build a monument to their memory and place flowers upon their graves, but help them now.

Do what you are going to do, now they started with, except experience. Give them a square deal. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for—"Humanity, the Constitution, and for information. I can see for information in the case of information information. I can see for information information. I can see for information i This is the time they need it. Many Give them a square deal. I can see them all, or imagine I can now, as they crouched before the German advance, which could not be stayed, until the Americans arrived. We had not only to stop them, but to hold them clear the way then drive. This is this, we went into the open, and re- Judge W. K. Price, who will pre- During his whole life he took a most and lacerations and nothing serifragment of shell has a death knell of it's own", sang the Americans

Think of that! There was mud and blood, the cry that went up here and there, during intervels between the rain of fire was "onward". I turned to a Captain to my right with an order. He reached for it, but fell. I turned to a nearby Lieutenant to hand him the order, but he was not there. He too had been killed by my side. I "Find a buck private and you will turned to a buck private, the only available man, and sent him with the "When the Americans fought the message. He never returned, but de-Germans, the Americans whipped the livered the message, (applause.) Severe thunderstorms would seem to break open the heavens, amid the shrieking shells but-we had to drive. "God picked a few, and was betray- From September 12th until the ed by one of them. Would you be armistic was signed we were not one surprised to find a few bad ones in an consecutive hour away from gunfire. Where the Americans fought the Germans, the Americans whipped the Germans, (applause). They were in-"The average soldier returned with vincible. Sixty hours without food

Col. Smith said there were heroes, except himself, among the Generals, "Many a soldier was willing to give Captains, Colonels, Lieutenants and up his life, who had no home to come on down the line, "but when you back to after returning to America." reach the rank of the buck private, "Don't forget, the buck private was there you have the hero", he commented. "I am a Colonel on reserve and as such will have to help pay the want the regular guardsman and naguns placed on a par with the man your flesh, and the spirits of some,

The Colonel closed with the statement that although the ranks of his of Ancient Greece and Rome rests not battalion would have been wiped out, on their specimens of art and archihad it not been for instructions he sued", (applause).

His tribute to Major Henry T. Allen, C. O., of the 90th division, who is "all that and more, a Kentucky Genthe treat in store Saturday afternoon tieman, brought the new Post head-

soon as you

but his tribute to Major General ucation of the period; classical courses nothing human was foreign to him. Division who "is all that and more, a Mr. Burnam after completing a thoro ness, and among the many names erating expenses over revenues Kentucky gentleman", elicited a preparatory course, went to New which enrich the history of our county and rentals for class one rallstorm of applause. Col. Kingman, Haven, Conn., and spent nearly four there will not be one, "taken for all in Col. E. D. V. Murphy and other staff years at Yale College. This journey all," of higher rank than his. He die l officers were spoken of in terms of in 1837 was a very long one, requiring March 19th, 1909. affectionate appreciation, and the more than two weeks, being accom-Buck private present glowed when the speaker said "The privates after blished mostly by means of coaches. He enjoyed his College days extremely UNCLAIMED CHECKS all won the war". talion of Death was but a nick name during his whole life Latin authors given his battalion, and that such re- in the original tongue, while his cords are not known in the army knowledge of the best English authors headquarters files. His address was was remarkable. He received many Service Section, Red Cross, wishes to grant 2,000,000 railway employes, devoid of self praise, every incident college honors, and was chosen to de- locate the following persons: of valor being credited to some liver the valedictory for his class-soldier or officer of the 90th. peal for a better Americanism. His soldier, this American fighter.

Fiscal Court Next Week

ranks were greatly reduced, however one of the features. There will State Legislature and became their an automobile to bring him here, assembly here today. it was drive, drive, drive; and to do be little to do, in the opinion of candidate for United States Senator. An examination disclosed bruises cords will show that over 600 of our side, since most of the road work active interest in every enterprise ous. Deschanel said he endeavor- stand; 12 hours a day; $15 a week young men gave their lives before and appropriations have been at- which had for its purpose the upbuilded to open the window which to right party. G. W. Goodloe. | That looked for "real summer Board.—Robt. R. Burnam, Cash-

and after Sept. 12th. "Ever little Distinguished Citizen of Madison Born 100 Years Ago Today BELOVED WOMAN

The Late Curtis Field Eurnem

in proportion as the names of its distinguished dead are kept in remembrance and revered. The glory tecture, although they were wonderful history.

shine as undimmed as the stars."

one or more articles in The Daily deserved to be compiled. Register signed An Old Timer" and Mr. Burnam might be termed a con- one brother, W. E. McCann, an sprung from Revolutionary Ancestry later generations. on both his paternal and maternal Mr. Burnam had a true appreciation W. Thompson, John G. Stoll, spoke of American Independence. He thus tractive from within and without, was inherited an intense love for both his ever a source of delight to him, and ristian native state and his country.

and became a most accomplished clas-Col. Smith explained that the Bat- sical and English scholar. He read 1840. On his return from college he Ky. began the study of law with Judge Richmond Bar. the Flag." The community has been his work. His was a rare experience Stone W. Norman. deeply touched by this American and comes to few. He was a member of the State Legislature, a State Sen- French President Falls ator, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury during President Grant's second ing of his community and state, and gave way.

"Every little fragment of shell has a tional army man who was present to tion and historic interest both to counsel and voice were ever on the side contributing freely of her time picnic party from Centre College and Mrs. J. B. Walker. its own citizens and to outsiders just of justice, and the oppressed. He al- and means in aiding every worthy and the Kentucky College for Besides a husband, G. D. Marways advocated internal improve- movement. ments, better roads-better schools.

gifted writer and any article he chose "There is one glery, death cannot to pen was gladly accepted by the

I hope sincerely that "An Old Timer", necting link between Revolutionary one sister, Mrs. Sarah M. Elmore. will continue to use his pen for the and Pioneer days, and the Post Bel- Funeral services will be held at benefit of the Daily Register and its lum period. He knew many soldiers the family residence this afterof the Revolution and nearly all the noon at 4 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Por-One hundred years ago today, May pioneers of our own and adjoining ter, pastor of the First Baptist part of which is still standing on Ir- county's early history had it been pre- follow in the family let in the vine street and was called by his served, would have been most valua- Lexington cemetery. parents, Curtis Field Burnam. He was ble and interesting for our own and The pallbearers will be David side, John Burnam and John Field of the beautiful both in art and na- Bryant. having participated in the struggle ture. His home, Burnamwood, atwas doubly so to all who enjoyed its He received his preparatory ebuca- hospitality and the kindness which quaint tion at the old Madison Male Semin- characterized its owner.

rs who ary. This school was organized in 1824 His married life was a long and reflect- and for fifty years afforded a liberal happy one, and much of the success of education for all who availed them his life was attributable to her who army, selves of its advantages, besides pre- shared every joy, every struggle, evuld and paring many youths for the best col- ery sorrow. He was from early life tribute leges in our country. Modern courses an earnest member of the Baptist control was $900,478,000, accordy made in both the schools and colleges of the church, and a devoted Mason. From former members glow with pleasure, present day, were unknown in the ed- every standard he was a man, and

Stone W. Norman, Secretary Home Mayme Gregg Smith, Richmond,

Maggie Parke, Silver Creek, Ky.

From Car Window-Walks

(By Associated Press)

DIES IN LEXINGTON

deeply sympathize with Mr. Ov- sheep, 300; active; $9 to $10 erton H. Chenault, of Lexington, lambs, $18. in the death of his wife, Saturday, May 22. Mrs. Chenault made her home in Richmond for a time after her marriage and by her win- fair. ning and attractive personality won for herself a host of friends. following in regard to her death.

wife of Overton H. Chenault, and one of Lexington's most beloved women, died at her home, 227 Son of Fred Frisbie Seized With o'clock, Dr. Homer W. Carpenter South avenue, Saturday night at 9:15 o'clock, following an illness of several months.

For some time Mrs. Chenault had suffered from heart trouble and friends could suggest, was death as follows:

tive in church work, but interest- home was in Lancaster.

Mr. Burnam travelled much, read voted to her home and family. She young women, left the party at Chenault, and John C. Chenault, more, and from both he gleaned a was ever ready to extend a help- King's Mills and went in swim- of Abbott, Miss., two brothers-inknowledge useful alike to himself and ing hand to others and all who ming. entertaining to his friends. He was knew her felt the charm of kind- "It is thought that the young Col. N. B. Deatherage. A vivid word picture, depicting

A vivid word picture, depicting

A vivid word picture, on when the command was is
A vivid word picture, on when the command was is
A vivid word picture, although they were wonderful and action from the wonderful names of the wonderful nam to go on when the command was is- the men and women given by them to public occasions. He was also a most her many graces of mind and Roberts went to his rescue and in

> Besides her husband, she is surdiscrewn, the princes of the mind press, while his letters written vived by three daughters-Mrs. body was taken to the home of A dispatch from Lexington to both at home and from abroau to John G. Stoll and Miss Elizabeth his parents in Lancaster Satur- the Louisville Times Saturday, The writer has read with pleasure members of his family and his friends Chenault, of Lexington, and Mrs James W. Thompson, of Paris; in the Lancaster cemetery today. United States Deputy Marshal 24th a child was born in a little house, counties. His knowledge of Madison church, officiating. Interment will

> > P. Eastin, Walter Chenault, James

RAILWAY OPERATION

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 24-The government's gross loss in the operation of railroads during federal railroad administration director of finance. Of this total, $677,000,-000 is charagable directly to oplines, sloping companies and inland waterways added approxily $45,000,000 to this total.

Move For Railway Employes

Washington, May 24.—A billion and seventeen million dollars is the additional revenue which the railroad labor board may commerce commission.

as "$1,000,000,000."

Advocate Closer Relations

(By Associated Press) Charlotte, N. C., May 24.-A

THE MARKETS

Cincinnati-Hogs 25c lower; Chicago lower; cattle lower; calves steady. Louisville, Ky., May 24.—Cattle, 800; lower; tops $12.75; hogs. Many near relatives and friends 2,200; 25c. lower; tops $14.25;

THE WEATHER

Probably local showers this afternoon or tonight; Tuesday

The Lexington Leader had the LANCASTER YOUNG MAN Mrs. Lida McCann Chenault, DROWNS IN DIX RIVER

Cramps While Swimming With Centre College Chums

which was aggravated by a recent here were shocked Sunday to her many friends in Richmond attack of la grippe, but not until learn f the drowning in Dix river and Madison, where she was exthe last few days did her illness Saturday of Hudson Frisbie, only tensively and favorablyknownand take a serious turn. Everything son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Fris- loved by all who knew her as the that medical skill could devise, or bie, of Lancaster. A dispatch tells possessor of a beautiful Chistian the loving ministrations of family the story of the youth's untimely spirit and her lovable disposition done for her relief, but to no avail. "While four girl friends looked of all, Mrs. Chenault was a daughter helplessly on, Hudson Frisbie, 18 Mrs. Martin was apparently of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCann years old, a freshman at Centre in good health Sunday, having atwho for years resided on the Win- College, was drowned in Dix riv- tended church in the morning chester road near this city. She er below the waterworks dam, after which she accompanied her was a member of the First Bap- five miles from Danville, about 4 husband from their home, about tist church and was not only ac- o'clock Saturday afternoon. His two miles east of the city on the Women that had gone up the riv- tin, the following relatives sur-She was a woman of beautiful er to spend the day. Together vive: one brother, T. M. Oldiam, Christian character, and was de- with "Red" Roberts and four two nephews, City Attorney J. P.

his attempt to save his companion almost lost his own life. The day night. The burial took place said:

"BLOND BOSS" TELLS

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 24-Frank largest sum spent in any state by the Wood organization was $15,-000, in New Jersey and added the in the case. next largest was $12,500, ir Maryland.

Hitchcock said he had nothing to do with the campaign contrimately $45,000,000 t this total. the contributors. Angus Mc-Sween, eastern campaign manager for Senator Johnson, of Cal-Jersey and $8,700 in Indiana.

BIG DAYLIGHT HAUL IN PENNSYLVANIA

pursuing.

CUPID CALLS, COURT STOPS term, a member of the Constitutional Montargis, France, May 24—plan of union proposed by the siding near Paint Lick, and Miss by her son. One week from Tuesday, Convention of 1890. He was a mem- Paul Deschanel, President of the joint committee on closer rela- Nannie Tampersley, 22, daughter of where the slaughter began. You could which will be the last day of ber of many National Conventions and French Republic, fell from a win- tions of assemblies of the South- Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tampersley, of NOTICE-There will be a not discern in the darkness, at times, May, the fiscal court will con- knew well the distinguished men of dow of a train here last night and ern and northern Presbyterian near that place procured license to meeting of the stockholders of until too close to shoot and it was a vene and the finishing of plans his party. From 1859-1863, he was after walking a mile, met the churches was adopted without a marry, Monday afternoon, they the Madison National Bank Frihand to hand battle to the death. My for road improvements will be the leader of the Union party in the track walker, who telephoned for dissenting voice by the Southern sought out Judge W. K. Price, of the day, June 11, 1920, for the purman. He adjourned court for a few articles of incorporation relative

SUDDEN DEMISE OF MRS. DAVE G. MARTIN

Well Known Woman Succumbs To Apoplexy After A Few Hours' Illness

Mrs. Dave G. Martin, 65 years old, died at the family residence early Monday morning of appolexy after an illness of a few hours, superindeced, according to he attendin hysician, Dr. H. i. Sandlin, by influenza, suffered some time gao. The funeral services will be conducted Tues-lay morning at the residence at 11 officiataing. Interment was in the Richmond cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Martin, who was a member of the Christian A number f relatives and friends church, proved a great shock to won for her the sincerest regard

A community grows rich in tradi- the betterment of his fellowmen. His ed in charity and civic betterment, "Frisbie was a member of a they were dinner guests of Mr.

law Judge J., C. Chenault and

IN DEMPSEY CASE

Oscar Vest, of Lexington, returned from Moberly county, where he summoned Miss Nancy Nichols to appear in San OF WOOD SLUSH FUND Francisco as a witness in the trial of "Jack" Dempsey, heavyweight boxing champion of the world, for alleged evasion of the draft laws. The trial will begin campaign managers, told the June 6, Vest said. Miss Nichols senate investigating committee She is a friend of the divorced today that far as he knew the wife of the champion, and is regarded as an important witness

SEVERE FIGHTING CONTINUING TODAY

(By Associated Press)

Warsaw, May 24. — Bolsheviki ifornia, told the committee the to- are attacking in waves on the tal contributions for Johnson's northern fighting front in thrust campaign was $68,130; the larg- to break the Polish lines and open est sum was $27,000 from R. B. communication with East Prus-Straussberger, f Mrristown, sia. The fiercest fighting Tenn. William Flynn, of Pitts- months is raging along a 90-mile burg, furnished $7,500, witness battlefield. Villages are changsaid. It is said the Johnson or- ing hands daily and lines are ganization spent $13,000 in New swavign to and fro. The latest butins and did not know about official advices say the Bolsheviki have been thrown back at most places, suffering heavy losses in all cases.

A REAL CITY SIGN

Even if the White Way has been Pittsburg, Pa., May 24 .- The postponed for a little while Richmond the association of railway execu- First National bank at Finley- was given a touch of real lighting in tives, today before the interstate ville, near here, was held up and an advertising way Saturday night robbed shortly afternoon today when the new electric sign of the Elliott's statement was made by six men who escaped, accord- Richmond Welch Company was turnwas a wonderful tribute to the soldiers of America and a strong apwas sworn in as a member of the and every one seeing this notice who knows these people will please tell of road application for increased escaped with $100,000 in bonds or more attractive sign of the kind in Here he lived and labored and died. The come the Red Cross office, It Come to Cross office, It C the vault. A sheriff's posse is letters, and gives Richmond a real "city" appearance.

> A woman died at Three Rivers, When Abra Hall, 24, a farmer re- Mich., from laughing at a joke told County court, who was a very busy pose of voting on changing the to the number of directors to be elected annually. By order of the